

Supply Chain Speaker Series

MAP Miles
Program

David Buzzeo talks about:

Strategic Sourcing and Global Procurement

How to Reduce Cost and Minimize Risk with a
Global Supply Chain

Speaker: David Buzzeo

Dave is currently the Global Category Manager at Takeda Pharmaceutical. He has accelerated the commercialization of complex products for over 20 years by understanding the product development and manufacturing process as well as selecting and collaborating with key suppliers. He has held senior level Global Sourcing and Procurement positions in different industries including life science (Millipore), medical devices (Medtronic and Haemonetics) and Pharmaceuticals (Shire, now Takeda). He has worked at these innovative large companies as well as early stage start-ups. Dave holds a BSME and MSME as well as an MBA. In his earlier years as a Mechanical Engineer, he was the recipient of six U.S. design and utility patents for several new products at various companies.
